SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW IS KEPT BUSY MANAGE

New List of Prosecutions Under Roosevelt Administration Compiled.

RECORDS SHOW 46 CASES FOUGHT OUT

Comparison Shows Difference in Activity of Recent Presidents From Grover Cleveland.

A new list of the Government pros cutions under the Sherman anti-trust law has been prepared by the Department of Justice, showing the comparative activity of that department under the different administrations since the passage of the bill, February 4, 1887. In its summaries, the list shows that under Roosevelt's administration, the work under the anti-trust and inter-state commerce acts has been busiest. Under Harrison, there were four bills in equity and three indictments, from

Under Cleveland, from 1893 to 1897, there were four bills in equity, two informations and two indictments. Under McKinley, from 1897 to September 14, 1901, there were three bills in

And under Roosevelt, from September 14, 1901, to date, there have been eight-een bills in equity, twenty-five criminal indictments, one forfeiture proceeding. and two contempt proceedings. The fines imposed in all these cases amount to $147,000. Under the interstate commerce act there was but one indictment under Cleveland's first administration, and thirty-five indictments under President

Under Cleveland.

Under President Cleveland's second term there were 19 indictments, which resulted in 9 convictions, 1 dismissal, 8 nolle prossed, 3 quashed, and 1 acquit-tal; 17 petitions to enforce orders of the commission, and 1 petition to re-strain defendants from making discriminatory rates; 1 prosecution for contempt, and 64 petitions for mandamus to compel filing of annual re tration there were 22 indictments, 5 petitions to enforce orders of commission and 1 petition to declare pooling combi-nation illegal. These indictments resulted in 5 convictions, 1 acquittal, nolle prossed, and 12 not prosecuted.

Under Roosevelt's administration to date there have been 157 indictments, 48 convictions, 2 acquittals, 9 nolle prossed, of fines imposed was $1,113,325.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Julia Koch told Judge Herr, in the second criminal court, Newark, N. J., that she was nineteen, and a bride of two weeks, and that her parents were so angered by her marriage to Oscar Koch, that they had disowned her and refused to permit her told to the courts or the trust members get fatter and the common citizen thinner. The non-trust citizens are heavily in the majority and protect themselves easily when roused, but they often allow designing men to manipulate polliticians and laws until the common people are helples.

WILL RETURN TO CONGRESS

JOHN A. KELIHER,

Representative From Boston, Who Promises to Do Much for Washington.

Despite the efforts of Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobson to bring about his defeat at the primaries in Boston recently, Representative John A. Kellher, of the Ninth Massachusetts Congressional district, undoubtedly will be returned Congress for his fourth term.

Mr. Keliher's defeated opponents are now going through the process of naving the primary vote recounted, but thus far they have lost, Mr. Keliher is looked upon by Republicans and Democrats as ablest members on the Democratic side of the House. He is a member of the House District Committee, a student of the gas question, and he has indicated that he will devote a considerable portion of his time to the local situation when he returns here in December. Mr. Keliher's district is one of the largest in the country, not only in popuation, but in the amount of business done. The great tide of immigrants enter Boston through "the Ninth," and Mr. Keliher is the real and only father of the bill providing for a new immigration station in the Hub.

BOMBAY, Oct. 1 .- Between two and ree million people are shelterless acing starvation and threatened with a fever pestilence, as a result of the food that has devastated the city of Haidarabad and the entire Musi river

Rescuers, who are now on the scene, report conditions as growing worse as the water subsides. The whole valley is a sea of soft mud, from which the arms, legs, and heads of thousands of rictims are protruding.

The relief expeditions are unable to raverse this quagmire for fear of be ing swallowed up in the soft mud. Bosts cannot be propelled in the slimy streams, and it will be probably two weeks before the ground will permit of

The danger from fever and starvaion is still the greatest menace. Res tion is still the greatest menace. Rescuers are wearing clothing soaked in disinfectants to prevent contamination, and at times the stench is so fearful as to drive them from their work. The total casualities resulting from the disaster will undoubtedly reach 10,000. Half this number are believed to have been drowned, and as many more deaths will undoubtedly result from the terrible conditions now prevailing in the region.

OLD FEUD RENEWED: THREE FATALLY HURT

Pitched Battle in Little West Virginia Town Over Load of Potatoes.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 1,-A dispute over five bushels of potatoes, which was really a fresh outburst of an old feud in Harts Creek, Lincoln county, resulted in fatal injuries to three per ons, and several more were serio hert. The Harts Creek county was re cently made famous by the conspiraases, resulting in eleven men going to the State prison.

The battle occurred in front of a store Hendricks Blumfield accused Jake Powers of stealing potatoes he had brought to the store for sale. They engaged in a fistic encounter and then pulled

Two brothers of Powers and George Ward took sides and a bloody battle Ward took sides and a broody battle with knives and pistols followed. Blumfield had his throat cut from ear to ear. Will Powers was fatally shot and Ward was almost brained. The father of the Powers boys was injured so badly that he may not recover.

FIGHT OVER ELECTION.

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, Oct. 1 .- After Callipolis and Galia county had voted "dry" by 1,700 majority, Dr. Charles Parker, president of the County Anti-Saloon League, fought a bloody fight with John North, a local saloon keeper, over the elections. Parker stabbed North several times and North may die. Parker is under arrest.
